Statement	1.Date of occurrence of the event:2026/01/28 2.Company name:Medigen Biotechnology Corp. 3.Relationship to the Company (please enter "head office" or "subsidiaries"):head office 4.Reciprocal shareholding ratios:N/A 5.Cause of occurrence: Medigen Biotechnology Corp. and the Japanese publicly traded company Oncolys BioPharma ("Oncolys", TSE stock code 4588), are jointly developing the oncolytic virus new drug OBP-301 (Telomelysin). Oncolys announced today (January 28, 2026) that OBP-301 is currently undergoing the "Sakigake Comprehensive Evaluation Consultation" with the PMDA (Pharmaceuticals and Medical Devices Agency). The application confirmation document for the "GCTP" category has been received. With this, the Sakigake Comprehensive Evaluation Consultation has now been successfully completed. 6.Countermeasures:none 7.Any other matters that need to be specified(the information disclosure also meets the requirements of Article 7, subparagraph 9 of the Securities and Exchange Act Enforcement Rules, which brings forth a significant impact on shareholders rights or the price of the securities on public companies.): (1)The pre-application consultation is a pre-review mechanism under the Sakigake Designation Scheme. Before applying for the approval of new drugs, its aim is to accept the evaluation of data regarding five items, namely "clinical", "non-clinical", "quality", "reliability", and "GCTP (Good Gene, Cellular, and Tissue-based Products Manufacturing Practice)". By identifying and resolving potential issues in advance, this mechanism aims to shorten the review process. (2)The development timeline for new drugs is long, requires substantial investment, and does not guarantee success. These factors may pose risks to investors, who are advised to exercise prudent judgment before making investment decisions. (3)Our company and Oncolys in Japan jointly share the development costs of OBP-301 and will share the future commercial benefits. (4)Link to the announcement by Oncolys, Japan: https://ssl4.eir-parts.net/doc/4588/tdnet/2744640/00.pdf
